Learning Packet Overview

Our Learning Packet will exist online through Google Classroom and CommonLit. During this time, we will be refreshing old skills through new texts. When work is on CommonLit, the expectation is that you complete all questions and use the guided annotation prompts on the site. When work is exclusively on Google Classroom, the expectation is that you make an individual copy of the worksheet and complete it within the allotted time frame. If you get stuck or have any questions I will be available by email at all times, phone call from 10am-2pm and text message at most times. Please do not hesitate to reach out for help during this time.
